World's longest job title revealed

Thursday, February 10, 2005 Posted: 1116 GMT (1916 HKT)

LONDON, England (CNN) -- If your company employs an "optical illuminator enhancer" to clean the windows, or you have a "director of first impressions" working on reception, then it might be time for some straight talking in the office.

Job titles have always been dressed up or embellished to make them sound more exciting, glamorous or important than they really are.

According to a survey two years ago in the UK, seven out of 10 workers said they would prefer a grander sounding job title to a pay rise.

2.SHARPEN YOUR SKILLS

“If the iron is blunt, and one does not sharpen the edge, he must use more strength, but wisdom helps one to succeed.”

GNT : If your ax is dull and you don't sharpen it, you have to work harder to use it. It is smarter to plan ahead.

How?

- Trial and Error
- Learn from others

Proverbs 15:22 ESV

“Without counsel plans fail, but with many advisers they succeed.”

GNT :

“Get all the advice you can, and you will succeed; without it you will fail.”

3.SHARE YOUR WEALTH

Proverbs 3:9-10 ESV

9 Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce; 10 then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.

Leviticus 27:30 ESV

“A tithe of everything from the land, whether grain from the soil or fruit from the trees, belongs to the Lord; it is holy to the Lord.”

During the later days of his life he revealed the origin of his devotion to the idea of tithing. ... ' William Colgate felt the urge to tithe because he recognized that God was the giver of all that he possessed, not only of opportunity, but even of the elements which were used in the manufacture of his products.
